

YPG PODCASTING RESOURCES

No experience required · Any subject · Grades 2–12

$1,000 / site license

ABOUT

A turnkey solution for any teacher to bring podcasting into the classroom — no audio or podcasting experience required. Developed with literacy experts from UCLA and LAUSD.

STANDARDS ALIGNMENT

- ELA
- UDL
- CTE
- ISTE

WHAT'S INCLUDED

25 Videos	12 Prompts with Graphic Organizers
21 Glossaries	11 Assessments	12 Readings	7 Activities

INCLUSIVE FOR ALL LEARNERS

- Multilingual & English language learners
- Students who struggle to speak up in class
- Students with learning differences

WHAT TEACHERS SAY

"YPG will set you up for success. Students writing and producing full length original music and podcasts — if I can do it, you can do it too!"

Molly Peters, West Ranch High School

SKILLS STUDENTS DEVELOP

- Writing & Reading
- Speaking & Listening
- Critical Thinking
- Persuasive Writing
- Interviewing & Storytelling
- Recording & Editing
- Communication
- Media Literacy

THREE-UNIT COURSE OVERVIEW

Unit 1: Foundations

Explore podcast formats, audience, purpose, and voice. Analyze real examples.

Unit 2: Media

Recording, editing, music, visuals, and effects. Deliberate creative choices.

Unit 3: Process

A structured, repeatable 5-phase workflow. Practice before applying independently.

Free Pilot Available

Join districts across the country. Start your free pilot — no commitment required.